Specialy Equipment Aftermarket segment continued annual growth at an exponential level.

SEMA Show: Highlights and Premier Debuts for 2024

The Annual SEMA Show is known for it's premiers and introductions. Examples include the Ringbrothers, a Wisconsin based shop and supplier, premiered two (2) interesting modified vehicles. First was modifying the legendary 1987 Buick Grand National aptly named "INVADR". This beast of a machine took 5000 man hours to complete. The chassis was replaced with a custom roadster setup. The car now features: 4-link rear suspension with 3-way adjustable shocks, HRE rims wrapped with Michelin Pilot Sport Cup 2s, Brembo brakes with six-pistion calipers, 3.8 liter V-6 twin turbo powertrain built by Duttweiler Performance producing a remarkable 1246 hp and 1000 lb-fr torque sent to the rear wheels with a 6-speed manual gearbox. Second, the Ringbrothers also introduced the modified 1970 Plymouth 'CUDA: "INFECTED". They transformed this to a color celebration, innovation and design. Also, the SEMA Show is known for it's annual concept Vehicles and SUVs. An example was KIA's EV-9 three-row eletric SUV concept called the "ADVNTR". This was a lifted EV-9 with a full suite of overlanding gear. It had a 3-inch lift and reinforced rocker panels, customer front and rear fascias and a custom roof rack.
